

Coated

Look at your tongue. Is it coated?

Then you have a bad taste in your mouth every morning. Your appetite is poor, and food distresses you. You have frequent headaches and are often dizzy. Your stomach is weak and your bowels are always constipated.

There's an old and reliable cure:

Don't take a cathartic dose and then stop. Better take a laxative dose each night, just enough to cause one good free movement the day following.

You feel better the very next day. Your appetite returns, your dyspepsia is cured, your tongue clears up, your liver acts well, and your bowels no longer give you trouble.

Price, 25 cents. All druggists.

"I have taken Ayer's Pills for 25 years, and I consider them the best made. One pill does me more good than half a box of any other kind I have ever tried."

Mrs. N. E. TALENT, March 20, 1899. Arrington, Kans.

THE PUBLIC

The portrait of Gaetano Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, is from a photograph taken four years ago. Bresci is a native of Tuscany. While living at Prato in Italy he attended the technical school and learned the trade of a weaver. At Paterson, N. J., he was employed in the silk mill of the Hamilton-Booth Company and lived with his wife and child at 303 Clinton avenue, West Hoboken. Bresci came to the United States about three years ago. He was not naturalized.

GAETANO BRESCHI

He left Paterson May 22, sailing for Havre on La Gasconne under the name Branchi Casari. He wrote to his wife from Milan saying that he would soon return. Mrs. Sophie Bresci was formerly Miss Sophie Knieland. She made the acquaintance of Bresci about three years ago in the silk factory, where they were both employed. Mrs. Bresci is now in destitution. She and her 8-months-old little daughter, Madeline, are being cared for by friends in New Jersey.

In these trying times in China there are no men among the foreigners upon whom greater responsibilities rest than the British consul.

One of the most important of these officials, owing to the extent of the interests committed to his care, is the representative of the British government at Tien Tsin, Mr. W. R. Charles.

Before the international forces gained control of the city the situation at one time grew so desperate that Mr. Charles sent a message by special courier, praying urgently for reinforcements, and announcing that the casualties were heavy, the ammunition insufficient, and that machine guns were necessary. He further stated that the Russians at the railway station were keeping up an incessant fire with large guns on the European concessions, nearly all of which were burned. Happily, the damage and loss of life at Tien Tsin have proved to be less considerable than was at first supposed. The British consulate, at any rate, seems to have escaped, but the residence of the American consul was burned.

Gen. Alexi Nicolaiievitch Kuropatkin, who, it is said, will be sent to China as the commander-in-chief of the Russian forces, is the Russian minister of war, and is probably the most trusted and most powerful servant of the Czar.

Long ago, when Kuropatkin was a young man, he was sent into Turkistan with the Russian advance, and spent his youth in high adventure and in winning for himself honors, decorations and promotion.

When he had served his apprenticeship in the marches and bivouacs of the East, he returned to Europe and resumed his studies in the schools. Slowly he rose on the ladder of advancement, until in 1898 he was made absolute master, under the Czar, of the armies of all the Russians.

Miss Pauline Astor, the young lady whose little love affair with Sir Berkeley Milne has been the indirect cause of her father's ostracism from the Marlborough House set in London, is more patriotic than her sire. She was asked recently whether she was an English girl or a Yankee girl. She replied that she wasn't quite sure. Her father, she said, was an Englishman. As for herself, she said she would be an American if the choice were left to her.

Miss Astor is under 20, and if she does not marry Sir Berkeley Milne or some other man whom her father does not like she will be the sole heir of $200,000. Miss Pauline's mother was a member of a fine old American family. Before her marriage with William Waldorf Astor she was Miss Mary Dahlgren Paul of Philadelphia.

J. P. Close, Toronto, Ont., died from a mosquito bite.

Chicago may have an underground railway system to cost $20,000,000.

Mamie Spencer, St. Joseph, Mo., committed suicide because her lover wanted to postpone their marriage.

Corned and roast beef prices have been boosted 25 cents a dozen on pound cans in Chicago.

Chicago's Masonic Temple was badly soaked with water. A thief had stolen the brass faucets.

South Bethlehem, Pa., Steel Company received an order from Russia for 2,000 tons of Krupp armor.

John Miller's horse ran away in Hazelton, Pa., but it didn't even awaken his 4-year-old boy, who was fast asleep.

Mrs. Lizzie Gustin, Chicago, tried to drown herself in a bathtub, then put a bullet into her body. She'll recover.

MY OWN SELF AGAIN.

Mrs. Gates Writes to Mrs. Pinkham, Follows Her Advice and Is Made Well.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For nearly two and one-half years I have been in feeble health. After my little child came it seemed I could not get my strength again. I have chills and the severest pains in my limbs and top of head and am almost insensible at times. I also have a pain just to the right of breast bone. It is so severe at times that I cannot lie on my right side. Please write me what you think of my case."

Mrs. CLARA GATES, Johns P. O., Miss., April 25, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as advised and now send you a letter for publication. For several years I was in such wretched health that life was almost a burden. I could hardly walk across the floor, was so feeble. Several of our best physicians attended me, but failed to help. I concluded to write to you for advice. In a few days I received such a kind, motherly letter, I followed your instructions and am my 'old self' again. Was greatly benefited before I had used one bottle. May God bless you for what you are doing for suffering women."—Mrs. CLARA GATES, Johns P. O., Miss., Oct. 6, 1899.

LIBBY'S LUNCHEONS

We are meat cooks and canners. Our business is the largest of its kind in America. We have tried to learn everything that anybody knows about making cooked meats correctly. That is our business. We seal the product in key-opening cans. Turn a key and you find the meat exactly as you want it. We put up in this way:

Roasted Ham, Beef and Tongue, Ox Tongue (whole), Veal Loaf, Deviled Ham, Brisket Beef, Sliced Smoked Beef, and two dozen other specialties. It is impossible for anybody to make lunch-meats any better. Your grocer should have them.
